

A woman with white hair, wearing a dark, long-sleeved dress, stands in front of a white, textured building. She is holding a long wooden stick or cane. The building has a large, cylindrical water tank on its roof. The scene is dimly lit, suggesting dusk or dawn. The text is overlaid on the image.

A biography written once. Kept for generations.

For Greek families — in Greece, and abroad.

1 — How it works

- Answer a guided questionnaire, at your own pace, from wherever you are — 30–60 minutes.
- Receive a first draft within 48 hours.
- Review it, request changes, approve it.
- Your booklet is printed and delivered. Your memorial website goes live when you decide.

If you prefer to be interviewed by us, this can be arranged.

2 – The Life Narrative

Not a template. This person's community, generation, and trade are researched and written so the era and the place need no explanation to family who never saw them. You bring the memories. We bring the context.

Heirloom-quality remembrance

For generations, professionally commissioned family biographies were available only to wealthy families or public figures.

Lukeni changes that.

By combining structured interviews, historical research and advanced narrative technology, we make heirloom-quality remembrance accessible to ordinary families at a fraction of the traditional cost.

3 — The Memory Book

A lasting legacy. A hard copy and digitalised version. Done for and delivered to you.

Everyone was provided for before she sat down.
